1. The first part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the function $f(x) = \sin x$. We shall see that this function is periodic with period 2π and that it is an odd function. We shall also see that the function $f(x) = \cos x$ is periodic with period 2π and that it is an even function. The functions $\sin x$ and $\cos x$ are called the sine and cosine functions respectively. They are the most important functions in trigonometry and are used extensively in physics and engineering.

2. The second part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the function $f(x) = \tan x$. We shall see that this function is periodic with period π and that it is an odd function. We shall also see that the function $f(x) = \cot x$ is periodic with period π and that it is an odd function. The functions $\tan x$ and $\cot x$ are called the tangent and cotangent functions respectively. They are also important functions in trigonometry and are used extensively in physics and engineering.

TOAST TO SENIORS

Dear Seniors, here's our best respects
to you,
We'd like to tell the wonderous things
you all did do.
What's the use for me to write,
Senior lore in black and white,
When you know within your heart
How we hate from you to part
But perhaps there'll come a time,
When in epic or in rhyme
We'll record what you will do.
So class of thirty-nine--Here's luck
to you.

Junior-Senior Banquet

CLASS

HISTORY

In September, 1935, as 75 proud freshmen, we entered Edenton High School. We were divided into two groups, with Mrs. Debnam and Mr. Leon Brogden as our beloved home-room teachers. Under their leadership we organized and elected our class officers. Anna Wood and Eunice Jordan were our presidents. We also chose our flower, colors, and motto, "Launched but not anchored." We soon settled down to hard study and made very high grades. We received most of the half holidays for having the cleanest room in high school. Our class also furnished some debaters and some of the Spotlight staff. In May school was out and most of us were looking forward to another successful year as Sophomores.

The next September we came back and found, to our regret, that the number of our class had dropped to 65. This year Miss Pauline Sprinkle and Mr. Duncan were our home-room teachers. Edna Wilkins and Eunice Jordan were the presidents. Mary White made the debating team and several of our number were on the Spotlight staff. This year Mrs. Evelyn Blow began a Glee Club and many of our girls took part in it. The girls proudly carried the daisy chain for the seniors at commencement and longed more than ever for our own graduation. We continued our good grades and soon we were looking forward to being Juniors.

In 1937 our class again came back for another year of fun and hard work. Our class was still large enough to be divided into two sections with Mrs. George Mack and Miss Margaret Brown as our teachers. Anna Wood was again elected president of one section and James Cozzens president of the other section. We took an active part in all school activities. Mary White again made the debating team and Carl Keeter also represented our class. We began working hard to earn money for the Junior-Senior Banquet. Finally in April we had the celebrated event which proved to be a great success. Mrs. Mack and Miss Brown were helpful and sympathetic advisors and we were greatly distressed at the end of the year when we found out that Mrs. Mack would not be with us our last year.

As seniors, we entered dear old E. H. S. for the last time. This year the whole group managed to squeeze into one class with Miss Hassell as our teacher. Anna Wood was chosen president of the class for the third time. Carl Keeter made the debating team again. On the Spotlight staff Mary White was the Editor-in-Chief. Sara Ellen Goodwin was elected Editor-in-Chief of the "Edentonian", our annual. Betty Wales was elected president of our Beta Club which included 15 senior members. Anna Wood was elected president of the Student Council, other senior representatives being Sara Ellen Goodwin and Betty Wales. A Glee Club was organized under the direction of Mrs. Gus Hughes, which we have greatly enjoyed. There are seven members of our class in the famous E. H. S. Band and four of the girls were drum majors for a year. A. J. Mason was recently elected a drum major of this organization. We also had our first basketball team since 1930. Many of our girls took an active part in this sport. Betty Wales received a medal for sportsmanship. Other seniors receiving basketball medals were; Anna Wood, Mary White, Sara Ellen Goodwin, Christine Cobb. Many of our boys took part in football, baseball, and basketball. James Cozzens was selected the most valuable member of the football team. Other outstanding senior members are Robert Chesson, Billy Shepard, Fred Hoskins, Elwood Nixon, and Tom Byrum. A. J. Mason was a manager of the team. We attended another Junior-Senior Banquet which was given in the Hotel Joseph Howes dining room. The hall was decorated with pine boughs and dogwood and the Easter idea was carried out. A very successful dance was given after the banquet.

Now we have passed our final examinations and will soon receive our coveted diplomas. We are happy to have finished our high school work and yet could shed a few tears at parting from these familiar walls and beloved friends.

CLASS POEM

Dear parents, friends, faculty, and classmates:

We wish to express through our happy tears
The experience we've had
And joys we've shared through all these few short years.

Now the graduation time has come
So we must travel on
For all our school days here are done
And all these joys gone.

Now each senior boy and girl
Will travel their own separate roads
Out into this big wide world
Bearing their own separate loads.

Success must surely be their fate
Loss cannot be true and
Now as it isn't quite too late
From this Class farewell to you.

MAY 17, 1939

Know all men by these present, that we, the Senior Class of 1939, of Edenton High School, Edenton North Carolina, on this, the 16th. day of May, wish to forget that the glory of Graduation will soon be over and High School days gone and we wish to remember the pleasures enjoyed by us as members of this institution, do make, ordain, and declare this our last Will & Testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I. To our beloved parents who have stood by us thru' all our trying school days, we will our deepest & dearest devotion.

Section II. To Mr. Holmes, our superintendent, our best wishes for his continuous future success and many thanks for his interest in our welfare.

Section III. To Miss Hassell, our home-room teacher and principal, we wish to make known our thanks for the valuable instruction she has given us.

Section IV. We wish we could leave Miss Clark a chemistry class consisting wholly of star pupils like "Goat", Fred, & Robert but since this is impossible we will her a bigger & better class.

Section V. We leave to Mr. Cheston a larger Algebra Class, with more "strictly attentive" students like Durward, Mary, & Betty.

Section VI. To Mr. Greenwood, we leave a better French Class, more world Crisii, and a pair of roller skates so he can get up and down the halls faster when searching for straying students.

Section VII. We hate to say good-bye to Mrs. Speight but she'll be kept busy, we're sure with her brightest pupils Robert Satterfield, Tom Wilder, and Edward Stokely.

Section VIII. To Mrs. Debnam we will a bigger and maybe a little bit cuter senior class in which to select characters for the Senior play.

Section IX. To Miss Brown, we leave our sincere hope that she will get that 1940 model Oldsmobile.

Section X. The departing senior girls leave Miss Trask all their worn out clothes and socks in hopes that the Seniors next year will be kept busy.

Section XI. To Coach Holton, we will all the credits for the Victories and defeats of the Edenton Aces and Best Wishes for his future success.

ARTICLE II

Section I. To the Juniors, the class of 1940, we will and bequeath our vacant places with all our privileges (?), dignity and intelligence.

Section II. To the Sophomores we will the determination to become seniors and also our quiet manner which has won us quite a reputation.

Section III. To the Freshmen we leave all the marks on the desks--all the initials scratched on the black boards and all our books.

Section IV. To the student body we leave all the good times we have had. These are to be divided equally among the students who follow us.

ARTICLE III

Section I. Billy Shepard, leaves his ability not to study to Tom Shepard--who we understand is not slouch at it already.

Section II. Mildred Owens leaves her flirting ability to Marcia Kepler. Marcia has already had a few lessons.

(WILL CONTINUED)

Section III. Annie Ruth Perry & Reba Wilkins will their quietness to Edward Stokely.

Section IV. Christine Cobb leaves her ability to hold her man to Doris Jean Leary but Chris isn't leaving Dee to anybody.

Section V. James Cozzens will his height to Lester Stewart.

Section VI. Kathryn Shump wills her gossiping to Janie Mitchener.

Section VII. Robert Chesson leaves his laugh to Norbert Sawyer, his ability to court Margaret Upton to anyone filling out an application blank.

Section IX. Parker Helms leaves "whoa-back-up" to Emily Howard and we hope she'll take good care of it.

Section X. Anna Wood leaves her presidential capabilities to Robert Satterfield.

Section XI. Madeline Habit leaves her hair to Anne Chappell--her ability to learn French to Dick Badham.

Section XII. Edith Bond and Elwood Nixon leave their courting ability to Frances Hollowell and Elton Forehand.

Section XIII. Herbert Hollowell leaves his interest in Harrellsville to Ernest Ward.

Section XIV. Mary Ellen Moore leaves the Byrum twins to anybody that will take care of them.

Section XV. Myda Weaver and A. J. Mason leave their dancing feet to Joe Rowlette and Corinne Forehand.

Section XVI. Fred Hoskins leaves Hoyt's to James Bond and Heywood Zeigler.

(WILL CONTINUED)

Section XVII. Betty Wales and Christine Cobb leave their high basketball scoring to the Freshman girls as prospects for future teams.

Section XVIII. Edna Wilkins leaves her settled disposition to Fontaine Pettus.

Section XIX. Barbara Kepler leaves sister Marcia to Dick Badham, Sam Cates, Gilliam Wood, George Alma Byrum and Bill Cozart and we want these boys to take good care of her.

Section XX. Annie Ruth Perry wills her height to Mary Goodwin.

ARTICLE IV

Section I. To the faculty we will and bequeath our deepest appreciation for the generosity they have shown us in the past four years.

ARTICLE V

Section I. We hereby appoint our teacher Miss Paulina Hassell, as our lawful executrix to all intents and purposes to execute this and to pay all our legal debts, even the broken window panes, electric light bulbs, and scratched desks, out of the benefit received from the estate. We do hereby revoke and declare utterly void all other wills and testaments made by us heretofore.

In witness whereof we, the Senior class of 1939, do hereunto set our hand and seal, this the 17th. day of May, 1939.

PROPHECY

Into my magic plane we climb
And soar into the sky
We look ahead on life sublime
At those who do or die.
At first we visit dear old France
A Cathedral we must pass
And there we see James "Wogie" Cozzens
Scrubbing windows, oh, so fast.
But that's not all we view in Paris
For to the Lourve we wander
And there Dot Habit seems to cherish
French art of which she's fonder.
But as we travel toward the West
To England we must hurry
Annie Ruth Perry doing her best
Working in a quarry.
And again we see another friend
Tom Byrum, do you recall?
Well there he is a happy bachelor
But he's marrying in the fall.
You remember Betty Wales, don't you?
Then take a look, don't faint!
She's steady companion to a rich old lady
And as happy as a Saint.
We travel now to the Riviera
And there we see her again
Our Anna Wood, Queen of Hearts
And just look at all those men!
And as we hop over an Alp or two
We notice in the valley
School teacher Barbara Keppler
Attending a political rally.
And there in Germany, who do we see?
Fred Hoskins, just arrived from home,
As our Ambassador with the key
Of Peacefulness never more to roam.
But enough of Europe, let us go
To America that we love so.
Here we see Mgt. Francis running
Mgt.'s Beauty Parlor;
If you want more beauty
All you do is call her.

And in a near by neighborhood
In a baker shop we find
Sara Ellen Goodwin selling doughnuts
And bread of the finest kind.
We see a crowded courtroom and a lawyer
With a silver tongue
It's Helen Jethro pleading and every
Heart is wrung.
We seem to see a college
With a gym so large and grand
And as instructor in Physical training
Mary Lee Sutton is in command.
Our plane now moves nearer and
Chowan meets our gaze
We see Alex White, a farmer, bragging
Of the crops he can raise.
Kathryn Shump, our class poet, has Changed more than the rest
She's riding a bucking bronco out in
The wooly West.
To the Trocadero we must hasten
Before the floor show begins
The orchestra there is A. J. Mason's
And Madeline Habit sings.
Here's Carl Keeter, that meek little fellow
He's grown up big and strong
He's living in the white house
Making speeches all day long.
Let's don't leave here till we've seen it all.
Here comes some one we know;
It's Mary Ellen Moore coming down the hall
First lady of the land you know.
Into this doctor's office we go
To get out of the rain
And here we run into Elsie Hassell
And she's still got a pain.
And in this self-same city, there are
Other surprises, too
For on the Follies Billboard we find,
You can't imagine who
Yes, Chrystal, Celia, and Agnes all dancing
On the stage
And with Walter Turner, their manager,
They are quite the rage.
And on the same bill, Elwood Nixon if our
Fancy sees aright
With his voice, a golden tenor, is giving
The world delight

We go back to Edenton Hi School
I'll bet you'd never guess
Elizabeth Hurdle, teaching gym at dear old
E. H. S.
And another person at E. H. S.
We find James Mitchener there
Teaching Geometry, Algebra, and Arithmetic
And his life is free from care.
We go around the corner,
You are never so surprized in your life;
Here we find Mildred Owens
As a good hardworking housewife.
We look ahead on a desolate isle
Heave ho, me lads and hearty
And here we see George Parker Helms
Chief of an exploring party.
We encounter a garden,
A lovely lady in blue
Alfred Gwenn Vanderbilts' fifth wife
But just Mary Bazemore to you.
We visit the Senate
Of which we're fond
And there as the speaker
Is Edith Bond.
Let's see what Robt. Chesson's been doing
We find him in the Armory yard
He's taken Dr. Wisely's place
As chief of the National Guard.
We fly on out to Reno
Hear her say he's been cruel
Who is this sad divorced
Why, it's our own Grace Spruill.
We find a red cross nurse
Who is nursing in a fight
She's working hard like she is mad
Look close, its Mary White.
Now here is a jeweler
He's working so hard
Let's go in this shop
To see George "Casey" Ward.
The head dietician at Duke Hospital
Looks like someone we know
As we look closer we see Edna Mae Wilkins
Dressed in a uniform white as snow.
We go to the operating room to see
Who is the surgeon there
We fine it's Reba Wilkins
With her assistant Adele Hare.

And here's Herbert Hollowell inventing
A shorter route to Harrellsville to go..
He's still going there, but he's Stopping off too at the U. S. Fish Hatchery
You know.
And last but not least
These two girls we find
Making pictures that are a wow
They are Chris Cobb and Verna Cayton
Are out in Hollywood now.
We've discovered these together
And the world stood still
Before our adoration
As we roamed at will.
Among the clouds this morning
In an airplane high
With wind for our companion
And a low hung sky.
And with the face of evening
We came quickly down
To earth, and walked back to discover
We are still in our own town.
